INTERVIEW

By Aiora, Egoi and Leire

Today we are going to interview Rakes Zoko, a worker in the Nature Interpretation Centre of Zaraitzu valley.

Q-What is your name?

A-Rakel Zoko.

Q-How old are you?

A-35 but this year I will be 36.

Q-What do you do in your work?

A-I'm working in the tourist office and I explain to people what they can do to visit the forest of Irati.

Q-How many hours do you work?

A-It depends on the season of the year. In winter we work only in the mornings and in spring we work full time and in summer we work in the mornings and in the afternoons.

Q-Why did you decide to work here?

A-Originally I am a pharmacist. I studied pharmacy, but I decided that I wanted to live in Otsagabia and my uncle Maño offered to work here in the tourist office.

Q-Are you happy with your salary?

A-No, not at all, because we work a lot of weekends and the salary is so low for work weekends.

Q-Would you like to change your job?

A-Maybe in the future, now I am happy with my work and with my workmates. I would like to try to be a teacher.
